Reference: Increases in LSFO prices

To Whom it may concern:

In December and early January, we have seen significant increases in LSFO prices.

Between December 1 2019 and today, LSFO prices have increased by more than US$120 / ton.

As per the JAS policy, whenever fuel prices of the past month increase by more than US$45 / ton, we are forced to increase our JAS BAF levels per TEU or CBM.

Therefore, effective March 1 2020 until March 31 2020, new BAF levels as per the tariff on the Internet, will become applicable.

The fuel levels for April will be released in mid to late February.
